Robby and Jon

I've been reviewing the insurance settlements provided by your client Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc. (CDE) pursuant to Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, by letter dated February 13, 2009. It appears that one of the documents referenced in the letter was omitted from the CD enclosed with the letter.

Specifically, the letter states on the second page that CDE located one of the settlement agreements entered into with various London Market Insurers, and that it is enclosed. In the assertion of the claim of confidential business information on the same page, the letter makes reference to the agreement with Ex. 4-CBI presumably the previously-referenced settlement. However, no such settlement is to be found on the CD.

The CD does contain five settlements, with four insurers: Ex. 4-CBI, Ex. 4-CBI It also contains the Exxon policies that we discussed on January 27, 2009.

Could you please enquire with CDE about the whereabouts of the Ex. 4-CBI London Market settlement?

Thanks

Sarah
